

Can I apply for more than one grant at a time?

You cannot lodge two applications as the lead organisation of a consortium. However, you can apply once in your own right and a second time as the lead organisation of the project but it's a maximum of two applications. Remember too that acting as an auspicer does not count towards the total number of applications that an organisation is eligible to submit.